

TANEY COUNTY REPUBLICAN

Official Paper of Taney County.

Entered at the Postoffice at Forsyth for transmission through the mails as second-class matter.

The Republican nominees for the county offices as a whole are men of a high order, well qualified for the positions for which they have been named. Republicans have no reason to sulk or scratch, and they will not commit the folly of giving the opposition their only chance of electing a man by so doing.

The interests of the party are superior to the interests of any individual. The Republicans in Taney county can elect every Republican on the ticket. Any Democrat who may be elected will owe his election to Republican votes. Do you, Republican reader, wish to shoulder the responsibility? Vote the whole ticket.

The Democratic platform approves the constitutional amendment requiring transportation companies to provide passes for legislators and state and judicial officers. Could there be class legislation more rank than this? The endorsement of legislation so opposed to the constitution, which expressly prohibits class legislation, ought to be sufficient to condemn the party proposing it. Vote it and the party proposing it down.

The state books showed a discrepancy two years ago of $11,000,000, calculated on the basis of figures furnished by the state auditor. Experts hired by the governor were not able to clear up the discrepancy, and even stated in their report that data of some of the transactions could not be found in the books at the state capital, but had to be searched out from records outside the state capital and even outside the state. If a book keeper for any business enterprise should so keep his books he would be a bookkeeper out of a job as soon as his employer could give him his time. Should the business of the state be conducted on a basis less sane? A new deal in the state's bookkeeping should be ordered on the 8th of November by electing the party which has been pointing out the defective and corrupt methods of transacting the business of the state for many years. Vote the Republican state ticket.

A prominent Democratic paper declares that "the worst that can be said of Sam Cook is that he became acquainted with the fact that one of his friends had paid money to prevent hostile legislation, and could not reveal his knowledge without betraying his friend." No, that is not the worst that can be said of Mr. Cook. It is worse that he advised his "friend" to pay money to prevent the passing of a bill cutting down a salary that was unreasonably large for the service required. It was worse that he should declare that he would do the same thing again under the same circumstances. It was immeasurably worse that his moral faculties should be so warped that he can see no wrong in such a transaction, and can still refer to the guilty man as "My honest friend." Such is the self-stated record of Mr. Cook, the election of whom Mr. Folk is advocating in the interest of "civic righteousness and legislative reform." What reform has any man a right to expect from such a combination? Vote for Walbridge and a full ticket without any taint of "boodling." That is the only chance to secure any appreciable reform in the abuses which have grown up and flourished to such an extent under Democratic administrations during the past thirty years that the Democratic party itself was forced to declare "boodling" the issue, with how much sincerity let the Folk support of Cook indicate to any man who is frank enough to candidly consider facts and follow them to their logical conclusion.

While our friends of the opposition are clamoring that protection is wrong and oppressive it is pertinent to consider that free trade England has increased her commerce less than half as rapidly as the United States. And this wonderful increase has been largely in the interest of the farmer. Perhaps the matter can be no more aptly and forcibly put than by the late lamented McKinley, in a speech to the 50th Congress, when he said: "The establishment of a furnace or factory or mill in any neighborhood has the effect at once to enhance the value of all property and all values for miles surrounding it. They produce increased activity. The farmer has a better and a nearer market for his products. * * * What the agriculturist of this country wants more than anything else, after he has gathered his crop, are consumers, consumers at home, men who do not raise what they eat, men who must purchase all they consume; men who are engaged in manufacturing, in mining, in cotton-spinning, in the potteries, and in the thousands of productive industries which command all their time and energy, and whose employments do not admit of their producing their own food." These words are worthy the profound consideration of every farmer and of every man, regardless of his political bias or prejudices, as being the sincere convictions, the fruit of intelligent observation, of a man whose ability, honesty and opportunity for the acquisition of knowledge have not been surpassed in the history of the country.

The Democratic Honest Money League of America, over the signature of its president, John Byrne, issues an appeal to all good Democrats and to all friends of honest money to give their support in this campaign to the only candidate whose election will give assurance of the permanence of the gold standard. The address declares that "Since 1890 we have as Democrats indulged the hope that the Democratic party would in 1904 renounce the heresies the adoption of which in 1896 forced us to sever our relations with our party. But the action of the St. Louis convention in refusing recognition of the gold standard, and the declaration of that body and of the party leaders and the press that "the money question is settled and therefore not an issue," convince us that our work is still unfinished. The absolute abandonment of the free silver doctrine is essential to the preservation of our national honor and prosperity." The appeal declares that the question is one of economics and should not be allowed to be made a partisan question, nor even a political one, as it is purely one of economics, other issues being slight compared with the maintenance of a monetary system that "assures absolute safety to citizens of all classes," and closes thus: "With the old spirit of 1896 let us again rally to the support of the flag of honest money, as represented in this campaign by Theodore Roosevelt—not as a Republican, but as a man of convictions and of the courage to maintain them."

Such an appeal, coming from a body composed of business men of Democratic faith and antecedents who thus place country above party, ought to and will exert much influence on the minds of candid voters who are willing to consider the question as separated from party considerations.

To those Democrats who read Folk's characterization of Hawes and his Indians in connection with the St. Louis county convention riot last summer and gave him credit for sincerity, his combination with Hawes in the St. Louis campaign must look peculiar, to say the least. But it is not more peculiar than his support of Cook and acquiescence in the machine program at Jefferson City and ever since. What hope can be honestly entertained for reform in state government based on the election of a man who laid down to the machine in convention, who is supporting one of the most prominent representatives of the machine for secretary of state, and who in his campaign speeches has no word of condemnation of the machine or its methods?

By what right do the Democratic leaders undertake to preach and expound to the American people any economic question? How do we know that they have studied and mastered any of these questions? Never in the world could it emphasize itself on any question as it did on the money question from 1896 to the year 1904.—Tom Watson of Georgia.

T. M. Wilson has withdrawn from the race for the collectorship, leaving Brazeal a clear field. Jack is liable to wake up on the morning of the 9th of November and find himself elected.

It is easy to oppose a candidate to gratify personal considerations, but the fact of such opposition may be a most inconvenient thing to face on some later occasion.

A week from next Tuesday will tell the story of the ballots, and it is a story from which Republicans are not shrinking.

This great stock medicine is a money saver for stock raisers. It is a medicine, not a cheap food or condition powder. Though put up in coarser form than Theodor's Black-Draught, renowned for the cure of the digestion troubles of persons, it has the same qualities of invigorating digestion, stirring up the torpid liver and loosening the constipated bowels for all stock and poultry. It is carefully prepared and its action is so healthful that stock grow and thrive with an occasional dose in their food. It cures hog cholera and makes hogs grow fat. It cures chicken cholera and roup and makes hens lay. It cures constipation, distemper and colds in horses, murrain in cattle, and makes a draught animal do more work for the food consumed. It gives animals and fowls of all kinds new life. Every farmer and raiser should certainly give it a trial.

It costs 25c. a can and saves ten times its price in profit.

PITTSBURG, KAN., March 25, 1904.
I have been using your Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine on my stock for some time. I have used all kinds of stock food but I have found that yours is the best for my purpose.

Who's Been Robbed?
The Democratic platform says: "We denounce Protectionism as a robbery." This is certainly startling if true. But who has been robbed?

Not the farmer, who is getting a billion dollars more a year for his products than under Free Trade; whose animals are worth a billion dollars more than under Free Trade; who has paid off his mortgages, who has improved his lands, who has increased his stock and implements, and who has money to burn instead of corn, as was the case under Free Trade.

The farmer has not been robbed, and the farmers and their families constitute 40 per cent. of all our people.

Not the wage-earners in manufacturing industries, who have lived so well and added a billion dollars to their savings since 1897, who have increased their insurance, who have paid for their homes, who have worked less hours and earned more money than ever before. No, the wage earner has not been robbed.

Not the railroad employees, who are getting a quarter of a billion dollars more wages a year now than under Free Trade.

Not the railroad owners, who are getting twice the dividends and whose stock is worth about double what it was under Free Trade.

Not the professional man, who is earning twice as much, and getting it. He did not get it even though he earned it under Free Trade.

Not the wives and daughters, who live and dress well when the husbands and fathers are fully employed at high wages.

Not the boys, who are getting a good education.

Not the general public laborers, who are working less hours and getting higher wages than ever before.

Not the old soldiers, nor the present army, nor the men who man the ships. No, there is no one being robbed except the pawnbroker and the Democrats who want a job. There is where the robbery comes in, and there is where it hurts. The would-be cabinet officers and heads of departments, the would-be postmasters and clerks, the would-be ambassadors and ministers and consuls, the would-be office holder of any and every description, he thinks he is being robbed, and yet he can make more money in his business and get more wages for his work than he could under Free Trade. He is robbed, not of work and income, but of a position he cannot be trusted to fill. That is all the robbery there is to Protection.

Of course some good people are opposing McKnight for county attorney, but most of the law-breakers are in the same attitude. Republicans cannot afford to oppose him in the interest of a candidate who cannot vote in the county.

No Republican can afford to make a fight on any candidate on the county ticket this year, in view of the effort that has been so successfully made to harmonize antagonisms preceding the primaries.

TALL PRODUCTS. They will be kept as a permanent exhibit, to astonish people from the prairie regions who fondly imagine they have a corner on productive soil and big growths of vegetation.
